Showcasing India's Safe & Sustainable Seafood Potential

Dive into the heart of India's seafood industry through the Seafood Expo Bharat 2026, hosted by the Marine Products Export Development Authority (MPEDA). MPEDA is the nodal agency of Government of India for the holistic development of seafood industry in India to realise its full export potential. This premier event unites producers, processors, exporters, innovators, and global buyers - all under one roof. Discover advancements in traceability, quality, and sustainability, while forging meaningful trade partnerships to propel India's seafood exports to new heights.

India: A Global Seafood Powerhouse

With its extensive coastline and thriving aquaculture sector, India is a top global producer and exporter of seafood, providing high-quality products to over 130 countries. India's seafood industry is built on a foundation of cutting-edge processing facilities and international standards to ensure global trust. Seafood Expo Bharat 2026 will include a dynamic Reverse Buyer-Seller Meet (RBSM), which is part of MPEDA's legacy of excellence, and offers a premium lounge to India's seafood ecosystem and export potential.
